

GRAMMAR PRACTICE

Read the like sentences and fill in the gaps

LIKE	WOULD LIKE
I like listening to music.	I would like to go shopping.

Fill in the gaps with a like or would like:

1. My best friend _____ to watch TV tonight.
2. I _____ talking on the phone.
3. Do you _____ listening to music?
4. My best friend _____ playing video games.
5. My sister _____ reading books.
6. I _____ shopping in my free time.
7. I _____ to go to a restaurant.
8. You _____ to learn English.
9. Do you _____ learning English?
10. I _____ doing sports in my free time.
11. I _____ to play football more often.
12. He _____ to buy a new bike.
13. She _____ to play with her toys.
14. He _____ chatting with her on the internet.
15. They _____ going to the cinema.

What would you like to do this weekend?

Answers:

1. My best friend would like to watch TV tonight.
2. I like talking on the phone.
3. Do you like listening to music?
4. My best friend likes playing video games.
5. My sister likes reading books.
6. I like shopping in my free time.
7. I would like to go to a restaurant.
8. You would like to learn English.
9. Do you like learning English?
10. I like doing sports in my free time.
11. I would like to play football more often.
12. He would like to buy a new bike.
13. She would like to play with her toys.
14. He likes chatting with her on the internet.
15. They like going to the cinema.