Now, I'd like you to talk about something together for about two minutes.

Here are some ideas for you to talk about and a question for you to discuss. First you have some time to look at the task.

Now, I'd like you to talk about what young people are usually worried about

You have been discussing the issues that most concern young people nowadays. How much would you say that young people care about these different points?

- Fashion and style
- The environment
- Crime
- Friendships
- Education and future careers

Use the following questions, in order, as appropriate:

- Is it important to pursue a career related to your interests?
- Would you say that young people have the right priorities these days?
- Some people say that humans are superficial. What do you think?
- Do you value your friendships or relationships with family members most?
- What is the best way to know what really matters to you in life?
