

INTERCAMBIOIDIOMASONLINE

FCE FOR SCHOOLS:
SPEAKING

WWW.INTERCAMBIOIDIOMASONLINE.COM | Marc Andrew Huckle

Intercambioidiomas

Questions that could be included in the FCE for schools exam:

Work and careers

- Would you say that teenagers are well prepared for the working world in school?
- What can be tough about choosing a career?
- Do your parents have a big influence on your career choice?
- Do you listen to your friend's or parents' advice most when looking into careers?
- Does academic testing aid you in selecting a career path?
- Would you prefer to carry out your higher education here or abroad?
- Do you ever take on more work than you can handle?
- How do you usually get ahead with your work or studies?
- Would you be keen to do a work placement in the near future?
- Have you ever had any work experience?
- Do you get upset if you fail at something?
- What would you like to do in the future?
- Could you get used to arriving on time for meetings?
- Do you find it easy to make a good first impression?
- Do you ever suffer from burn out?
- Should students ever fill in for their classmates when they don't fulfil their responsibilities?

Intercambioidiomas

Language learning

- What do you like most about learning English?
- What do you least enjoy about language learning?
- Why might English be useful for you in the future?
- If you had the choice, which language would you start learning?
- Which would you say is the most useful foreign language nowadays?
- Are you interested in any languages other than English?
- Why do you think English has become the international language?
- Do you have any English speaking friends?
- Have you ever spoken to a native English speaker?
- Are you a fan of watching English or American films?
- How often do you practise your English?
- What encouraged you to start learning English?
- Would you say that repetition is an important part of language learning?
- How can English language learners improve their listening skills?