You have seen a TV documentary about how life has evolved over the past century. Write an essay of 140-190 words:

In which ways has our standard of living improved over the past 100 years?

- Working conditions
- Health and diet
- Leisure time

Your essay must include grammatically correct sentences, correct punctuation and spelling.
In English class you have had a discussion about health. Write an essay of 140-190 words:

To what extent has our diet improved over the past few decades?

- Junk food
- Organic produce
- (your own idea)

Your essay must include grammatically correct sentences, correct punctuation and spelling.
You have had a class discussion about friendship. Write an essay of 140-190 words:

Is it better to have a close friendship group with just a few people or have a wide selection of friends?

- Entertainment
- Support when you have problems
- (your own idea)

Your essay must include grammatically correct sentences, correct punctuation and spelling.
You have recently seen a YouTube video about work-life balance and have consequently had a discussion with your classmates in English class. Write an essay of 140-190 words:

Is it fair that some people in some professions receive a far higher salary than others?

- Contribution to the local community
- Training time and investment in education
- Time spent at work

Your essay must include grammatically correct sentences, correct punctuation and spelling.
You have been talking about the environment in science class and how we can help to protect it. Write an essay of 140-190 words:

What should be done to prevent environmental catastrophes from occurring?

- Education on the topic in schools
- Media campaigns to inform of the potential dangers
- (your own idea)

Your essay must include grammatically correct sentences, correct punctuation and spelling.