Now, I'd like you to talk about something together for about two minutes.

I'd like you to imagine that you are talking about travel. Here are some of the ideas they are thinking about and a question for you to discuss. First you have some time to look at the task.

How might a fondness of traveling cause conflicts in these areas of life?

- Work
- Educations
- Family and friends
- Other leisure activities
- Personal finances

Now, talk to each other about how traveling can cause conflicts in your life.

Thank you. Now you have about a minute to decide which is the area most affected.

Thank you.

Discuss the following questions, in order, as appropriate:

- Why is travel so popular?
- What is the best trip you have ever been on?
- Would you rather travel alone or with others?
- How can travel have an impact on the environment?
- What can we learn from seeing other cultures?
