

ENGLISH | MARC HUCKLE | @ www.intercambioidiomasonline.com

Intercambio Idiomasonline

PHRASAL VERBS: FOOD

Go for – choose

What I went for in the restaurant was not as good as I had expected.

Eat out – eat in a restaurant

I generally eat out at least once a week.

Go/keep on – continue

If you go on eating so much sugar, you will have problems.

Put off – make somebody not want sth any more

I think it has put me off cheese for life after getting food poisoning last week.

Run out of – not have any left

We have run out of bread so I am going to the store.

Eat/drink up – eat or drink all of sth

I need to eat up all of my salad to get all of my vitamins.

Try out – experiment with

Have you tried out you Thermomix yet?

Take to – begin to like

I have taken to making curry; I can't get enough of it.

Throw away/out – put in the rubbish

We had better throw out the left-over pasta, I think it has gone off.

Wash up – clean the dishes

I was up at least 3 times a day; the housework is endless.

Turn out – have a particular result

Did your new curry recipe turn out as good as you had expected?