

ENGLISH | MARC HUCKLE | @ www.intercambioidiomasonline.com

Intercambio Idiomas Online

GRAMMAR: GET PHRASAL
VERBS (B1-C1)

Fill in the gaps with the correct preposition to form the phrasal verb:

1. What time do you generally get _____ in the morning?
2. I normally get _____ work at around 8 am.
3. It can be hard to get _____ a break up.
4. Do you usually get on _____ your classmates?
5. I didn't get _____ until after 10 pm last night.
6. Even though we have a baby now, it is essential to get _____ every now and again.
7. I don't expect to get _____ with the crime, but I should not be punished severely.
8. I need to get _____ the train at the next stop; I think I'm going to puke.
9. What did you get _____ to last weekend?
10. Let's get _____ work if you want to finish by the deadline.
11. I am thinking about getting rid _____ my car.
12. Did you manage to get _____ to your parents on Skype?
13. It is great to be able to get _____ at least once a year. We usually go to the beach.
14. We just managed to get _____ in time before the whole place went up in flames.
15. Where do you usually get _____ the bus?
16. I don't get along well _____ my boss.
17. Let's get _____ to work and focus on the task.
18. I struggle to get my message _____ in a foreign language.
19. You should not have allowed your friends to get _____ you and your partner.
20. I can get _____ in Spanish and German.
21. What time did you get _____ last night?
22. The thief got _____ in the nick of time.
23. I really get _____ on this kind of situation.
24. I just want to get _____ my course and find a decent job.
25. When did you get _____ learning languages?

Answers:

1. What time do you generally get up in the morning?
2. I normally get to work at around 8 am.
3. It can be hard to get over a break up.
4. Do you usually get on with your classmates?
5. I didn't get in until after 10 pm last night.
6. Even though we have a baby now, it is essential to get out every now and again.
7. I don't expect to get away with the crime, but I should not be punished severely.
8. I need to get off the train at the next stop; I think I'm going to puke.
9. What did you get up to last weekend? get up to
10. Let's get to work if you want to finish by the deadline.
11. I am thinking about getting rid of my car.
12. Did you manage to get through to your parents on Skype?
13. It is great to be able to get away at least once a year. We usually go to the beach.
14. We just managed to get out in time before the whole place went up in flames.
15. Where do you usually get on the bus?
16. I don't get along well with my boss.
17. Let's get back to work and focus on the task.
18. I struggle to get my message across in a foreign language.
19. You should not have allowed your friends to get between you and your partner.
20. I can get by in Spanish and German.
21. What time did you get back last night?
22. The thief got away in the nick of time.
23. I really get off on this kind of situation.
24. I just want to get through my course and find a decent job.
25. When did you get into learning languages?