

ENGLISH | PLANNING | @ www.intercambioidiomasonline.com

Abbey Road Centro de Estudios

WORKSHEET: WOULD LIKE VS LIKE

Would like or like: we use would like to say what we want in a specific situation (I would like to eat some grapes) or like to talk about our tastes in general (I like eating cheese).

SUBJECT	WOULD LIKE + INFINITIVE	LIKE + ING
I	WOULD LIKE	LIKE
YOU	WOULD LIKE	LIKE
HE	WOULD LIKE	LIKES
SHE	WOULD LIKE	LIKES
THEY	WOULD LIKE	LIKE
WE	WOULD LIKE	LIKE

Fill in the gaps with the would like or like:

1. I _____ to eat some cheese now.
2. He _____ to drink some water at the moment.
3. They _____ eating fruit and vegetables.
4. We _____ to eat a mango.
5. She _____ eating bread and ham for breakfast.
6. We _____ eating broccoli.
7. We _____ to have salad for lunch today.
8. He _____ eating fish and chips every Friday.
9. She _____ to have carrots for dinner today.
10. I _____ eating apples and bananas.

What would you like to eat today? I would like to eat.....

Answers:

1. I would like to eat some cheese now.
2. He would like to drink some water at the moment.
3. They like eating fruit and vegetables.
4. We would like to eat a mango.
5. She likes eating bread and ham for breakfast.
6. We like eating broccoli.
7. We would like to have salad for lunch today.
8. He likes eating fish and chips every Friday.
9. She would like to have carrots for dinner today.
10. I like eating apples and bananas.

What would you like to eat today? I would like to eat

I would like to eat today, but I normally like....