

ENGLISH | MARC HUCKLE | @ www.intercambioidiomasonline.com

Intercambio Idiomas Online

C1 BILINGUAL EDUCATION

1. Did you learn a second language as a child in school?
2. If so, did you use to enjoy studying languages at school?
3. Were you brought up bilingually?
4. How many languages can you speak?
5. Are you a balanced bilingual?
6. Which languages would you like to learn in the future?
7. Is moving abroad always an effective way of learning a language?
8. Are you in agreement with the influx of bilingual education programmes across Europe and Asia?
9. What are the benefits of a bilingual education?
10. What might be the drawbacks of a bilingual education?
11. What is the best way of teaching a second language in state (public) education?
12. It may surprise you to know that over 50% of Europeans are actually bilingual, what is your opinion on this?
13. It is said that learning a foreign language opens your mind, would you agree?
14. Have you had any nightmare experiences while learning a foreign language?
15. What is the most important element in the teaching of languages? The teacher, the resources or a combination of both.
16. What does it take to have a successful language learning experience? Self-motivation, for example?
17. It is very popular to learn a language nowadays with a communicative approach; do you think it is the best way?
18. How can language teachers motivate adults to take up learning another language?