

ENGLISH | MARC HUCKLE | @ www.intercambioidiomasonline.com

Intercambio Idiomas Online

C1 COMMUNICATION SKILLS

1. Are communication skills an integral part of the education system in your country?
2. Some people say that social media has reduced the quality of the way we communicate. Would you agree with this statement?
3. Is it important to have good communication skills to be able to get a job?
4. In which professions are good communication skills essential?
5. Do you think a person can learn to communicate effectively or is it something innate?
6. To what extent does one's upbringing influence their ability to communicate?
7. How far does our native language dictate the way we think and rationalize things?
8. Should all people learn foreign languages from a young age?
9. Would you say that being able to speak more than one language opens your mind?
10. When is the best time to learn to communicate well?
11. Should public speaking be a core subject in our schools?
12. Are communication skills more important for people who study academic or vocational degrees?
13. What types of jobs do not require effective communication skills?
14. Why do introverts find it so difficult to get their point across?
15. Have you ever experienced a situation in which there was a language barrier between you and another person?