

ENGLISH | MARC HUCKLE | @ www.intercambioidiomasonline.com

Intercambio Idiomas Online

C1 GREEN ISSUES

1. Ought we to recycle as much as possible to protect the planet from becoming overwhelmed by plastic waste?
2. What might be the solution to the evident problem of providing enough food for swelling populations?
3. How could the government encourage people to buy products with no packaging from supermarkets?
4. Is traffic a major issue where you live?
5. In many cities such as London, the amount of traffic is actually reducing. What might be the cause of this?
6. Is it beneficial for the environment to give away unwanted belongings?
7. What would happen to our planet if humans suddenly ceased to exist?
8. What types of things should you do on no account if you wish to be environmentally friendly?
9. What potential dangers do humans face with regards to climate change?
10. Is the environment an issue that concerns you and what could you do to better protect it?
11. What should humans have done no sooner realising the effect on climate change we are having?
12. How far do media campaigns about environmental issues affect general people's behaviour?
13. What laws are in place in your country to ensure that people recycle?
14. Why is it important to create nature reserves and animal sanctuaries?
15. Which animals are no longer around or in danger of dying out nowadays that we might have seen 50 years ago?