

PRACTICE EXERCISES:

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first, using the word given. Do not change the word given, you must use 3-6 words including the word given.

1. It might be a good idea to let us know what really happened last night.

LIGHT

Perhaps _____ know what really happened last night.

2. We can relax and take it easy for now

FEET

We can relax and _____ time being.

3. The boss blamed us for his own mistakes as always.

FAULT

The boss said _____ his own errors as always.

4. You should have realised that you were not to blame after all.

FIGURE

You ought _____ that you were not at fault after all.

5. Regardless of how hard you try, you won't make the deadline.

MATTER

_____ effort you put in, you won't make the deadline.

6. Is it really worth taking the risk of missing the flight?

POINT

_____ in risking not making the flight?

Answers

1. you should shed some light on
2. put our feet up for the
3. (that) we were at fault for
4. to have figured out
5. No matter how much
6. Is there really any point