

EXAMPLE 36

Now, I'd like you to talk about something together for about two minutes.

I'd like you to imagine that you are talking about English. Here are some of the ideas you could be thinking about and a question for you to discuss. First you have some time to look at the task.

Is it a good idea for people to do these things when they want to learn English?

- listen to English music
- watch English language films
- have conversations in English
- read English blogs on the internet
- go on trips to English speaking countries

Now, talk to each other about what you need to do to learn English effectively.

Thank you. Now you have about a minute to decide which is the most important thing to do when you are learning English.

.....

Thank you.

Now, discuss these questions, in order, as appropriate:

- How long have you been learning English?
- What do you like and dislike about learning English?
- Some people say that anyone can learn English with practice. Do you agree?
- Some people think that learning English is easier as a child. What do you think?
- Will English be useful for you in the future?
- How often do you use your English?
