

USE OF ENGLISH: OPEN CLOZE

Do you hate learning English?

There seems to be a rumor around _____ (1) English language learners that some nationalities have more difficulty _____ (2) others when it comes _____ (3) learning English. The question is, can this really be the case? Learning English comes down to one thing, practice. _____ (4) you spend enough time using the language, you will inevitably end _____ (5) mastering it. You will become good _____ (6) it because it will feel normal to you. So, what is the issue here? Well, it is a matter of being eager to learn. The sooner a learner decides that they _____ (7) want to learn English and stops putting it off, the sooner they will be _____ (8) to make real progress. Basically, it is about finding a way of using English that suits you. Find a way that you find enjoyable. Whether that be in a language school, learning online, language exchanges, Apps or even self-study. It is really that simple when you think about it!

Intercambio Idiomas Academy

Do you hate learning English?

There seems to be a rumor around many English language learners that some nationalities have more difficulty than others when it comes to learning English. The question is, can this really be the case? Learning English comes down to one thing, practice. If you spend enough time using the language, you will inevitably end up mastering it. You will become good at it because it will feel normal to you. So, what is the issue here? Well, it is a matter of being eager to learn. The sooner a learner decides that they actually want to learn English and stops putting it off, the sooner they will be able to make real progress. Basically, it is about finding a way of using English that suits you. Find a way that you find enjoyable. Whether that be in a language school, learning online, language exchanges, Apps or even self-study. It is really that simple when you think about it!