Jobs and careers

We always say _____ (1) you should work to live and not live to work, but I would say _____ (2) is more complicated than that. Your job has a huge impact _____ (3) your life as we spend 30-50 years doing this said job and it takes _____ (4) a large amount of our waking hours. This is _____ (5) it is tough to talk about work-life balance because if we do not feel _____ (6) ease in the workplace, we cannot just switch _____ (7) and forget about it in our free time. It influences our mood, our energy levels and even our patience. So, we need to think about it. If we don't go for the right kind of job, this will have an effect on our daily lives and can even result _____ (8) stress or anxiety.

Jobs and careers

We always say that you should work to live and not live to work, but I would say it is more complicated than that. Your job has a huge impact on your life as we spend 30-50 years doing this said job and it takes up a large amount of our waking hours. This is why it is tough to talk about work-life balance because if we do not feel at ease in the workplace, we cannot just switch off and forget about it in our free time. It influences our mood, our energy levels and even our patience. So, we need to think about it. If we don't go for the right kind of job, this will have an effect on our daily lives and can even result in stress or anxiety.
